The Fair Housing Amendments Act specifically prohibits discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin in:

1. Sale or rental of dwellings;
2. Residential Real-Estate related transactions;
3. Provision of services and facilities in connection with such activities.

Simply states, it is unlawful to:

1. Refuse to sell, rent, finance, or insure housing or property;
2. Tell any person that housing is not available for inspection, sale, rent or lease;
3. Refuse to lend money for the purchase, construction, rehabilitation, repair or maintenance for housing or property;
4. Discriminate against any person in the terms and conditions of fire, extended coverage or homeowners insurance;
5. Refuse to consider income of both husband and wife;
6. Print, publish, or circulate any statement or advertisement which would indicate a preference or limitations; or
7. Deny any person membership in any multiple listing or real estate service.
